

COVID-19 update in Russia - additional restrictions and support

Yesterday, Russian president Vladimir Putin announced an additional package of measures aimed at supporting businesses. It will include: extending the list of businesses which suffered from COVID-19, subsidizing companies for payment of the salary, additional support of aviation companies, etc. Click on the button below to read our review

Putin announces additional measures to help business

Did you not manage to arrange a deal over the lease payment with your landlord? Our legal experts have reviewed Russian legislation, including recently passed laws, in order to provide you with a precise instruction of which legal leverage you may use in order to reduce your lease payment. Click on the button below

Can your business claim the decrease of the rent?

Since 15 April, Moscow has introduced so called digital passes for citizens. It applies to everyone commuting to work and around the city. We have prepared an infographic explaining the peculiarities of the Digital Pass and the process of its receipt. Click on the button below

Digital Pass in Moscow

Stay healthy!

Kind regards,

