Revised Terms Announced for Main Street Lending Program

The Federal Reserve issued a press release on April 30, 2020, announcing expanded loan options and increased eligibility associated with the recently established Main Street Lending Program (the Program). The Program, for which initial terms were summarized here, is meant to provide access to credit for small and medium-sized businesses, which were in sound financial condition before the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, to maintain operations until conditions normalize.

You can find a summary of the key changes to the Program at the link below.
