

SCHNEIDER GROUP: Russia shuts all cross-border transportations, Moscow reinforces restrictions – March 30 updates

Today Russia has introduced a restriction of all types of transportation through its borders. It will cover all types of checkpoints. There are rare exceptions implied for the inhabitants of Kaliningrad region and Russian citizens living in Donetsk and Lugansk regions.

Additionally the Mayor of Moscow has reinforced the restrictions on citizens self-isolation.

In order to read about all the legal changes from March 30, click on the button below:

READ UPDATES

Due to the growing scope of COVID 19 and the range of restrictions governments apply in order to curb it, many businesses wonder, whether it can be referred to as a force-majeure from the legal perspective? Our experts have prepared an explanation on it. Click on the button below:

Can COVID-19 be Acknowledged as force majeure?

Stay Healthy!

Kind regards,

